-Established Quorum (established)

-New and Old Business

- Revisited and finalized goals for the committee
 - Committee members liked the goals and came up with ideas for places to publish stories
 - Athens Independent
 - Athens Messenger
 - WOUB
 - WSEO
 - One story a quarter in one of the newspapers that we then share on our socials and by update emails to city council, etc. seemed like the best pathway forward
 - Some story ideas included:
 - Don't Steal Bricks
 - Shovel the Snow
 - Member recruitment
 - Andrea suggested getting information about our committee in OU student newsletters, like CHP groups and Cutler Scholars and HTC
 - Networking with other groups
 - Andrea mentioned Strong Towns Athens as a group to network with. We discussed different committee members and Commission members attending meetings of various groups as a way to educate them about what we are doing and cultivate a spirit of working together
 - Capitalizing on other events

- In the spirit of outreach, we thought rather than create more of our own events, it would be good to attend other existing events and have a presence as a way to get out there in the community, which is something we already do but could do more of
